

On the Subject of Kawaiitlyn

Notice me defuser-san!

I have a giant speaker on my module plate and my face in the corner. You should already know what I look like though. How could you forget your best friend, Kawaiitlyn?

I'll be quiet as long as I'm selected, but if defuser-senpai ignores me I'll start screaming for them to return. The longer it takes, the louder and more desperate my screams will be.

I don't want anything from defuser-senpai except for their attention, so make sure defuser-senpai spends all his time with me. Okay, expert-san?
